Krakow reviewed the timeline for completion of our task. Friday, December 16th the final day to accept RPF/RGQ. We will go over the packets we have received and make final decisions regarding to proceed or not pursue in December.

Rohn gave a report on state and federal fundings. She is working with Lively on this project. She will follow the draft letter Brink wrote to the Mott Foundation. Brink has not received a response from the foundation as of this date. He will follow up with a phone call today. Krause suggested appointing two people to look into funding. Veliquette and Rohn will work on funding.

Krakow encouraged committee members to do follow up on any contacts that they had made.
